Bethlan-Jones, of Lincoln Road in Great Yarmouth, admitted two offences of arson with intent to endanger life at Great Yarmouth Crown Court.

Paul Cotter, prosecuting, said: "A woman entered the conservatory, which had a locked entrance. She then lit a flare, a sort of lighter with a coloured flame. She later added some device that caused a small fire. "Another flare was lit and the man held it up and another flare was lit. Those of us who were there saw the flare flicker and smelled the smoke. "They soon realised that there was a staircase leading down to f30f4ceada
