It's January. It's 2012. It's that time again to enjoy your new year. And to look forward to your upcoming year. Now is the time to make your goals. And looking at the weather today, it's pretty unpredictable. Wind is supposed to kick up between 10:00 AM and 1:00 PM. However, the temperature is unseasonably warm, which means rain will be the real weather threat (since the rain is also unpredictable). Enjoy the new year and have fun with it. And be patient with all the bad weather that is rolling in.Association of High-Power, Single-Pulse, Transcranial Magnetic Stimulation Parameters with Occipital Speech Inhibitory Responses in Humans. Potential mechanisms underlying the relationship between transcranial magnetic stimulation (TMS) and neural plasticity in human speech motor learning and rehabilitation are unknown. Here we studied the association of TMS parameter and cortical speech inhibitory response in human. Anodal single-
