Resident Evil 2 SourceNEXT Bioshock 2 PC Review.The first impulse would be to say that Joseph Smith borrowed heavily from the teachings of others. The Book of Mormon recounts how, upon receiving a new revelation, the prophet Joseph Smith would lay out a series of questions to his people, and ask which of the solutions in the Book of Mormon's book of sayings and commandments most resembled the answers given to him by the angel Moroni. This has led some to suggest that Mormonism is little more than the practical application of a similar process of extrapolation. However, those familiar with some of the key sources from which Joseph Smith borrows will likely be disappointed in such an approach. As the following list indicates, the two most important books from which the prophet derived his teachings of the restoration - the Book of Mormon and the Doctrine and Covenants - were not simply copied and pasted. In many ways, these volumes are more like allegories than plagiar
