Smoke Attack Crack + Free Download PC/Windows

Smoke Attack is a shooting game in which you have to follow a little guy named Oxy to fight back against evil smoke enemies, which are trying to occupy a business office. Oxy fights against many types of enemies, not just the ordinary ones. In the game, you have to work your way around the room, dragging the oxygen gun with you, and shoot as many enemies as you can. However, the enemies are not just ordinary objects, they are loads of smoke balls. Through these balls, you can take some pleasure, but you have to be careful because, if they shoot back at you, they will immediately disappear, and you will have to start all over again. So, before you let them shoot back at you, you can only shoot one or two of the balls. The game also offers you a set of extra challenges. For example, you may have to find the key to the office door, or move to a certain spot to find the rest of the keys. In Smoke Attack, you also have to work on repairing your oxygen level. As you fight the enemies, you will lose oxygen. Don't worry, Oxy can rejuvenate himself through the filter tank. To add a new and interesting dimension to the game, Smoke Attack has been packed with plenty of bonus features. These include the scores of each mission, secret weapons and a bonus level in which you have to find and shoot the keys of different colors. How To Play Smoke Attack Game To start the game you need to know that you are the oxygen-gathering hero, Oxy. You have to fight back the smoke balls and put an end to their malevolent occupation of the office. First of all, you need to select whether you want to play with the keyboard or just touch your mobile device. If you opt for the touch control, then you will have to tap on a cylinder on the right side, to open and close it. With the help of the filter tank, Oxy can replenish the lost oxygen and keep fighting. Additionally, the cylinder can store power-ups that can be used to enhance Oxy's power. Oxy will automatically run away from the smoke balls that are shooting at him. If you want him to retreat, then you need to tap on his backpack, that can be found on the left side. In addition to fighting back the smoke balls, you have to be wary of the smoke balls that are trying to shoot back. Don't worry – when
