Playing Another Adventure is more like a dream. At first you are free to choose your path. But after that it gets more difficult and you must make a decision. The transition from an ambiguous future to reality is very difficult. Game is a story of Jonny, Jack, Robert and Kevin. The endings of the game are written by each of the characters themselves. The character of Kevin will dictate the ending. The ending is designed for the one who is the first to wake up (or other random user). The ending for Jonny is decided by the person who has woken up last. Some humor and exaggerations.
