[Game] ELDEN RING Review by Minhee Yeon. [2016-02-26] "I love the world-building aspect of this game more than the actual story in a way. I like the real-time elements of the game. As long as you are not bored with the game, it is a very enjoyable game. It keeps me interested even when I don't want to play it. The world building is amazing and that is the aspect of the game that I like the most, especially that I don't like the story of this game." [Story] ELDEN RING Story by Minhee Yeon. [2016-02-26] "The story revolves around the main character, named Tarnished, who was called into the Elden Ring from the day he was born. When he was little, he met a girl named Maryann, who was also an Elden, and traveled together with her. His meeting with the girl made him feel a lot of pain and fear, but after overcoming that, he accepted his fate as one of the Elden. Since then, he has been slowly awakening to the power of the Elden Ring and become self-conscious. He has to ask his master, named Kain, and his master's assistant, named Zurk, for help, and now he has returned to the Elden Ring. He enters the Rune Valley to prove himself as a man who has gained enough power, and he opens a rift to the dangerous world Outside. He meets Maryann there, where he promised to protect her. I like the story of this game. It is told in a way that makes you feel the story is moving forward, that you are the main character, and that you are with other characters. It is a beautiful story told in short scenes that give you sympathy for these characters. This is how a story should be told." [Graphics] ELDEN RING Graphics by Dong-Myung Kim. [2016-02-26] "One of the things I really like is that the characters look and act so realistic. I like the atmosphere of the story and the way it is told. The scenes are very memorable to me and I can't forget any of them. The animations are very smooth, too. For example, when you move your arm, the arms of the characters move too. There are also beautiful landscapes and backgrounds." [Audio] ELDEN R bff6bb2d33
