Homestead in the Nation's Capitol Area. The three-day extravaganza will feature a variety of activities from old-fashioned carnivals, “Oldtime” music, authentic cuisine, Southern style shawls, quilts, crafts, and the yodeling of Jim, the ubiquitous and charming mountain-dwelling fiddler with his “Hayseed Trio.” Wednesday, July 3, is the opening “Carnival Night” on the National Mall. It is known now as “Independence Day” and the evening closing ceremony is followed by fireworks from the eastern seaboard. Thursday, July 4, will be the original “Oldtime Music Day.” Long associated with old-time mountain fiddlers, Old-Time refers to traditional American music of the old days. Jim’s Trio will perform on the stage at 6:00 p.m. and again at 10:00 p.m. Friday, July 5, is the first of our “Unemployed Gatherings” and “Coffee Al Fresco” at 10:00 a.
