Saranac Distillery Closes Its Doors The Saranac Distillery, a Healdsburg, California distillery producing a small range of vodka, has announced that it is closing its doors. According to their twitter, “Due to the economic and market conditions, the Saranac Distillery has decided to close it’s doors. Spirits distillers, we stand together as one!
#Saranac #Independent.” The distillery was started back in 2004 and started with a single product- the Saranac Limited Edition Vodka- which quickly became a favorite. The distillery also made a few other products but didn’t seem to last very long. This leaves us to wonder what the future holds for their other products.
The Saranac Distillery also provides tours and tastings, but those are not available right now. 6d1f23a050
