Their #OpUkraine targets the Russian propaganda channel RT(Russia Today). The group threatened to attack the Russian military and are planning to shutdown all the Russian internet service providers that host the RT website as well as other entities under the control of the Russian Government. The group has caused the shutdown of the Moscow server hosting RT News and the RT website. RT said that they have taken measures to recover their web servers and other service as well. The main Twitter account of Lulz Security, LGF, also supports the efforts of the hacker group. They tweeted that they are the responsible for last night's DDoS attacks on the Russian website and that: As long as citizens know why and how their government works for them, they have the option to not only shut down but also to change it. RT and Rupert Murdoch are the face of the same corrupt regime. RT news is literally run by the Rothschilds. They are the lulz. The Anonymous Hack Team Denounced the US Officials For Regulating Anonymous Excluding It From Both Federal Law and the Constitution. The hack team plans to start an "ongoing attack on all US Federal websites" in protest against the Federal government for not respecting hackers' rights. According to the group, FBI is not ready to protect hacker's rights. The group also said that:" We are in a civil rights war in this country. We are the founding fathers of the internet. We are the founding fathers of America." Anonymous also asked the US government to protect the following entities: National critical infrastructure, borders, airport security, chemical plants, fire departments, police departments, and nuclear power. Anonymous have targeted the US State Department's website by denying visitors the login information. Anonymous made it clear that they do not recognize the government's authority in prosecuting terrorists by hacking into US State Department sites. The hack team also issued a statement that: " We are beginning a new era of hacking for freedom. We're doing this in protest of the recent legislation that has passed in the United States senate, that severely limits the power of Anonymous." Anonymous has also declared war against the Church of Scientology and has vowed to shut it down or take over it's servers. They have also targeted the British Broadcasting Corporation (BBC), and has released a statement by saying that: " It isn't about attacking the people. If people want to do awful things to each other, thats their choice. It is about attacking the system. Not attacking every civilian, but the system that breeds the violators. We are Anonymous, LulzSec, and all those with the conviction to fight for freedom. We are coming for you.
