With S3 Glacier storage class provisioned capacity units, you can pay a fixed upfront fee for a given month to ensure the availability of retrieval capacity for expedited retrievals from S3 Glacier Flexible Retrieval. You can purchase two provisioned capacity units per month to increase the amount of data you can retrieve. Each unit of capacity ensures that at least three expedited retrievals can be performed every five minutes, and it provides up to 150 MB/s of retrieval throughput. If your workload requires highly reliable and predictable access to a subset of your data in minutes, you should purchase provisioned retrieval capacity. Without provisioned capacity, expedited retrievals might not be accepted during periods of high demand. If you require access to expedited retrievals under any circumstance, we recommend that you purchase provisioned retrieval capacity.
