When I was about 12, my dad put me on a very strict diet that got my mom to ground me for a week. He said I had to eat nothing but apples and oranges (and snacks on the side). I think he was trying to motivate me to lose weight, as I was quite chubby by then, but I was really more interested in how he could spend 3 days of our holiday in Greece behind two grocery carts full of food. I'd never been on an airplane before and really wasn't sure how quickly you could get food on board. While he was busy pulling the cart around the local supermarket, I sat on a bench eating oranges and apples with my huge Greek family, including my grandparents, uncles, aunts, cousins, and the entire Greek community of Boston. We ate a lot. We laughed a lot. I drank lemonade and ate wedges of oranges and
