

La Liga TOP

The Primera División is currently second in the UEFA rankings of European leagues based on their performances in European competitions over a five-year period, behind England's Premier League, but ahead of Italy's Serie A and Germany's Bundesliga. "All this technology was implemented to achieve a legitimate goal, which is to comply with the obligation of LaLiga to protect its commercial and audiovisual rights," it elaborates. "LaLiga would not be acting diligently if it did not put all possible resources and technologies at its disposal to fight against piracy. This is a particularly significant task taking into account the enormous negative impact fraud has, which is estimated at approximately 400 million euros per year." ¿Cuáles son mis derechos? Puedes ejercer tus derechos de acceso, rectificación, supresión, oposición, limitación del tratamiento, no ser objeto de decisiones individuales automatizadas y portabilidad enviando un correo a lopd@laliga.es Although Real Betis will be without forward Nabil Fekir, who suffered a ruptured ligament in his last match, and midfielder Paul Akoukou, they will still feature plenty of firepower. Forward Borja Iglesias has a team-high 10 goals and four assists in 19 starts. The 30-year-old has been a fixture with Real Betis for the past four years. Spains 'La Liga' (the league) is made up of 20 teams. The teams are fairly evenly spread around Spain with clusters in Madrid, Barcelona, Seville and the Basque Country. La Liga has been dominated by sporting giants Real Madrid and Barcelona, with the 3rd most successful team (Athletico Madrid) following some way behind. The last team to win La Liga outside of these three was Deportivo de La Coruña in 1970. Barcelona's Nou Camp is the largest football stadium in Europe with a capacity of 99,000, that's over five times larger than Getafe's Coliseum Alfonso Pérez which has a capacity of 17,000. The average match day attendance in La Liga is 27,000 which makes it the 3rd best-supported football league, after the German Bundersliga and the English Premier League. On April 25, 2021, Between the Sticks celebrated its two-year anniversary. In honour of the milestone, goalkeeper journalist Mouhamad Rachini is ranking the 10 best goalkeepers of all time from each of the big five European leagues: the German Bundesliga, the Spanish Liga Santander, the French Ligue 1, the English Premier League, and the Italian Serie A.
